

ATS Corporation Wins RAVE Award from Tech Decisions and Novarica

MCLEAN, VA – (PRNEWSWIRE) – June 6, 2011, ATS Corporation (“ATSC” or the “Company”) (NYSE Amex: ATSC), a leading information technology company that delivers innovative technology solutions to government and commercial organizations, today announced that it has topped Novarica’s ACE rankings for insurance service providers for the second year in a row, making it this year’s RAVE Award winner in that category. Presented by insurance technology trade publisher Tech Decisions and insurance technology research, consulting and advisory firm Novarica, the RAVE Awards are presented to software and technology service providers that have attained over a 12-month period the highest aggregate Novarica Average Customer Experience (ACE) Ranking which objectively measures customer satisfaction of insurance technology and operational executives across a wide range of areas and serves to guide insurance professionals in their selection of potential solutions providers.

ATSC’s client focus was affirmed by an overall ranking of 98, a Customer Satisfaction ranking of 99 and a score of 100 that respondents would “definitely hire this service provider again” and “highly recommend this service provider to a peer.” Matthew Josefowicz, Partner and Managing Director at Novarica and creator of the Novarica ACE Rankings commented, “ATSC’s performance is impressive, with what amounts to a 100% net promoter score within the group of customers that participated in the ACE Ranking.”

“Our group’s mission is to partner with our clients, leveraging our deep insurance industry expertise and providing quantifiable value to their organizations by thoroughly understanding their technology requirements as well as their business goals and vision,” commented Insurance Division Vice President Janeen Blanton. “We are pleased to be a recipient of this year’s RAVE Award in the Service category because it is the result of customer recognition, and we greatly appreciate our clients for providing such favorable feedback.”

Jeff Ranew, Administrator for the South Carolina Home Builders Self Insurers Fund (“SCHB”), said, “ATSC’s commitment to their clients was clear when they assisted us in selecting and implementing our new policy and claims administration system. We at SCHB congratulate them on winning the RAVE Award and confidently recommend them to those who need assistance with their technology initiatives.”
